Lubricity[®]

Dry Mouth Oral Spray

Relief for your cannabis-related dry mouth symptoms

Lubricity is a premium product that is formulated to relieve cottonmouth symptoms associated with the use of cannabis. Dry mouth, also known as xerostomia, occurs when there is a decrease in the production of saliva in the mouth. Lubricity forms a gel-like substance in the mouth which retains saliva longer than water. Our unique formula has 5 simple natural ingredients, providing up to 4 hours of relief from cottonmouth and comes in convenient, pocket size bottles.

- Premium Hyaluronic Acid
- Convenient travel size bottles
- Relief from cottonmouth
- FDA Cleared
- Contains NO cannabis or cannabinoids
- Flavorless, odorless solution
- Alcohol, Sugar, and Gluten Free
- Vegan-Friendly

In a clinical study, 70% of participants preferred Lubricity over their current product.
